1st

BY

His Grace the DUKE

OF

NORFOLKE,

Earl-Marſhal of ENGLAND.

For ye wearing of Black Alamode Hatbands &c. Mourning.
15. [illegible] 169[illegible]

IN Purſuance of an Order of the Lords of His Majeſties moſt Honourable Privy-Council at Whitehal, the Third Day of January, 1694. Theſe are to give Notice, that it will be allowed as full and proper Mourning, to wear Hatbands of black Engliſh Alamode, covered with black Crape: In Conſideration of the great Incouragement it will be to the English Manufacture of Lute-ſtring, and Alamode, and the Relief which many Thouſands of poor People employed in the ſaid Manufacture, will receive by it.

NORFOLKE and MARSHALL.

Printed by Edw. Jones in the Savoy 1694.